SALINAS HIGH SCHOOL

Salinas, California

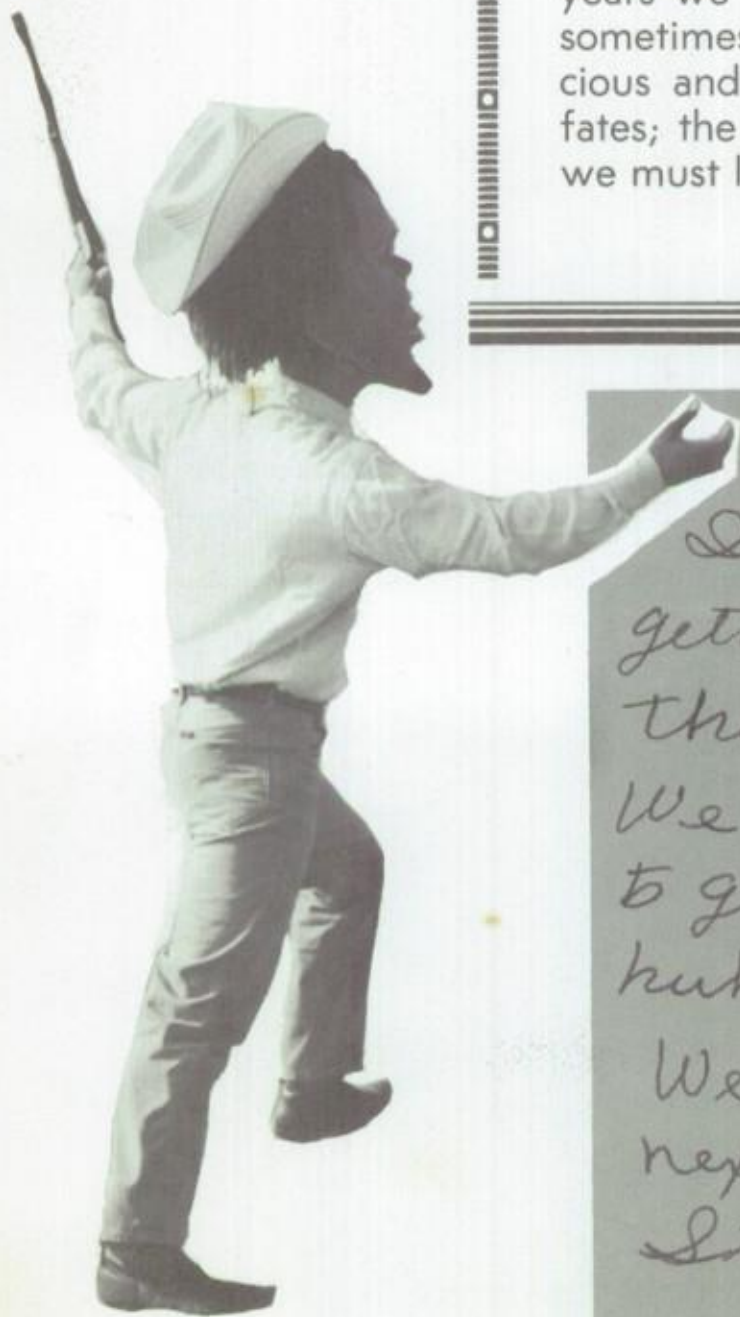

Mary Anne -
 It's been fun
 knowing you these past few years. Best of luck in everything you do. Jim May

Here's to Salinas High. Here's to all that goes to make up a school: students and teachers, history and traditions, memories and hopes. Yes, all these and many more intangibles make Salinas High School.

May our accomplishments perpetuate the name of Salinas High. The achievements of former students will lead us on to even more worthy actions, and our deeds will bring many more awards to our school.
 May we always reflect its praise.

Wherever we may roam, we will keep Salinas High forever in our hearts. The years we spend here may seem long and sometimes even useless, but they are precious and few. These short years seal our fates; the clock does not turn back. Here, we must learn to live.

Mary Ann:
 It's been fun
 getting to know you
 this year.
 We almost got to go to Yosemite huh?!
 Well, better luck
 next time!
 Stay sweet,

Realizing the dream of becoming mighty seniors, we pause for a moment to recall three wonderful years at Salinas High. We can still remember our first year at SHS as stumbling sophomores. Among our first recollections are the welcome assembly, the Get-Acquainted Dance, and the excitement of rallies and games. Activities during our sophomore year included selecting and purchasing class rings, and our successful sock-hop, the Zombie Jamboree.

Then, as juniors, we had reached the halfway mark. We began the year right by winning the A.F.S. magazine drive. We shall long remember a most successful Junior-Senior Prom, Carousel, proudly presented by our junior class. Lastly, our class eagerly anticipates student body leadership.

The years passed quickly, and before we knew it, our dream was realized — we were mighty seniors of 1963. There is so much to remember . . . the senior play, the prom, ditch day, and our last dance, the senior ball. Will we ever forget the excitement of graduation pictures, announcements, and scholarship awards?

As our final year at Salinas High sweeps by us, we gaze longingly over the many marvelous memories of our class. After years of preparation, the special night is finally at hand — the night when we march together for the last time as the class of 1963. Ahead of us lies the road of life and a prayerful wish for success and happiness.

Class of 1964

Mike Conway, assisted by Mary Barden, Jill Waller, and Darlene McGuffin, led our class through a profitable and productive junior year. All of us worked like demons to make the prom the best in the history of Salinas High. Money from the concession booths fattened our bank book and made the prom possible. We thoroughly enjoyed the assembly we earned by winning the A.F.S. magazine drive. Looking back, we find that our junior year was highly successful, but we intend to make our senior year surpass all others.

Class of 1965

The school year began as a frightening experience for us sophomores. Soon we adjusted to the life of high school students and settled down to a year of hard work. When we became acquainted with the members of our class, we held our elections. Then came the choosing, purchasing, and waiting for our class rings. We can say that our sophomore year was wonderful, but the next two years will be even more wonderful for the class of 1965.

Activities

Noon rallies at S.H.S. bring the students together. The Rooters' Club officers worked hard to make our rallies interesting, and through their efforts we succeeded in winning two trophies this year. The most important trophy came as a result of our spirited support at the North High-Salinas High game. We won our other rooters' trophy from all the schools in the CCAL.

"Our fighting Pom-Pon girls bold"

Butch Hazelaar and John Montes try their hand at cheerleading while the Varsity Pom-Pon Girls and Cheerleaders take on the role of football players.

Yolanda Castillo hides her head in shame as Butch Hazelaar and Richard Curtis display their talents as Block "S" Cheerleaders.

These loyal rooters turned out to see the Block "S" Cheerleaders perform at one of our best rallies of the year.

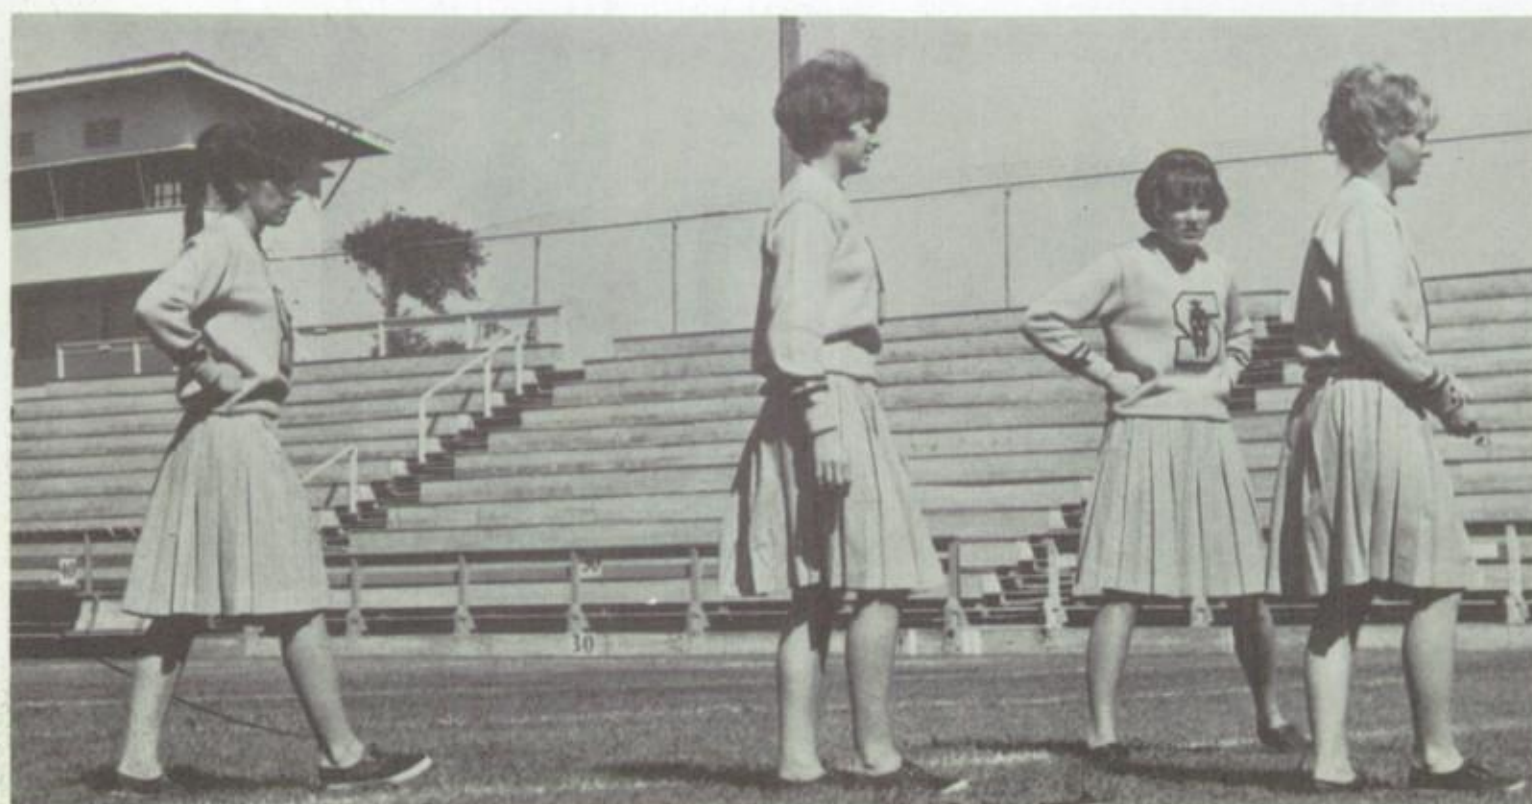

Well, who's got the bestest team in the league?

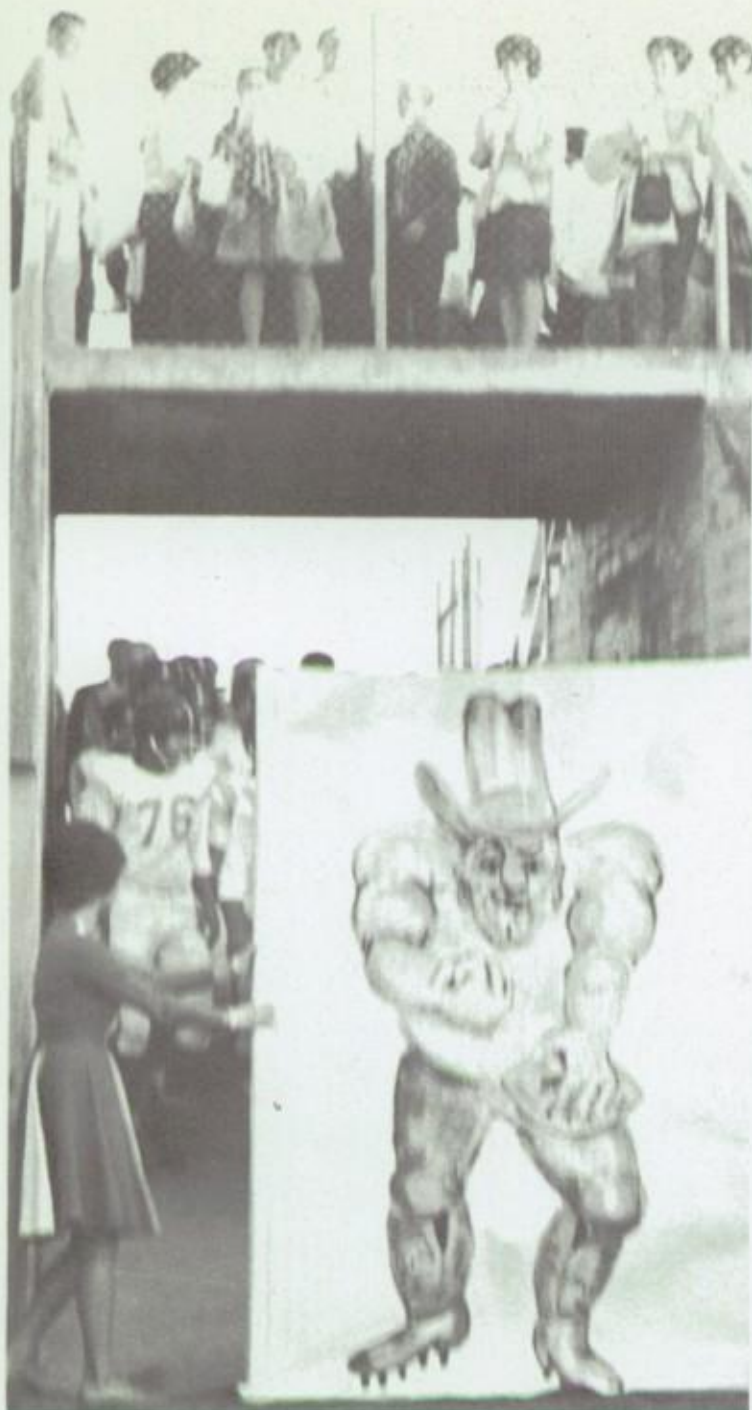

Shana and Barbara escort the Soquel Knight around the inner court during one of our J.V. Rallies.

Cliff Kurz accepts the cake for the J.V. team while Ron Pina makes a face at the El Gab cameraman.

Well, Gail, are we going to do a cheer or not?

Salinas High rooters await the break-through of the mighty Cowboys.

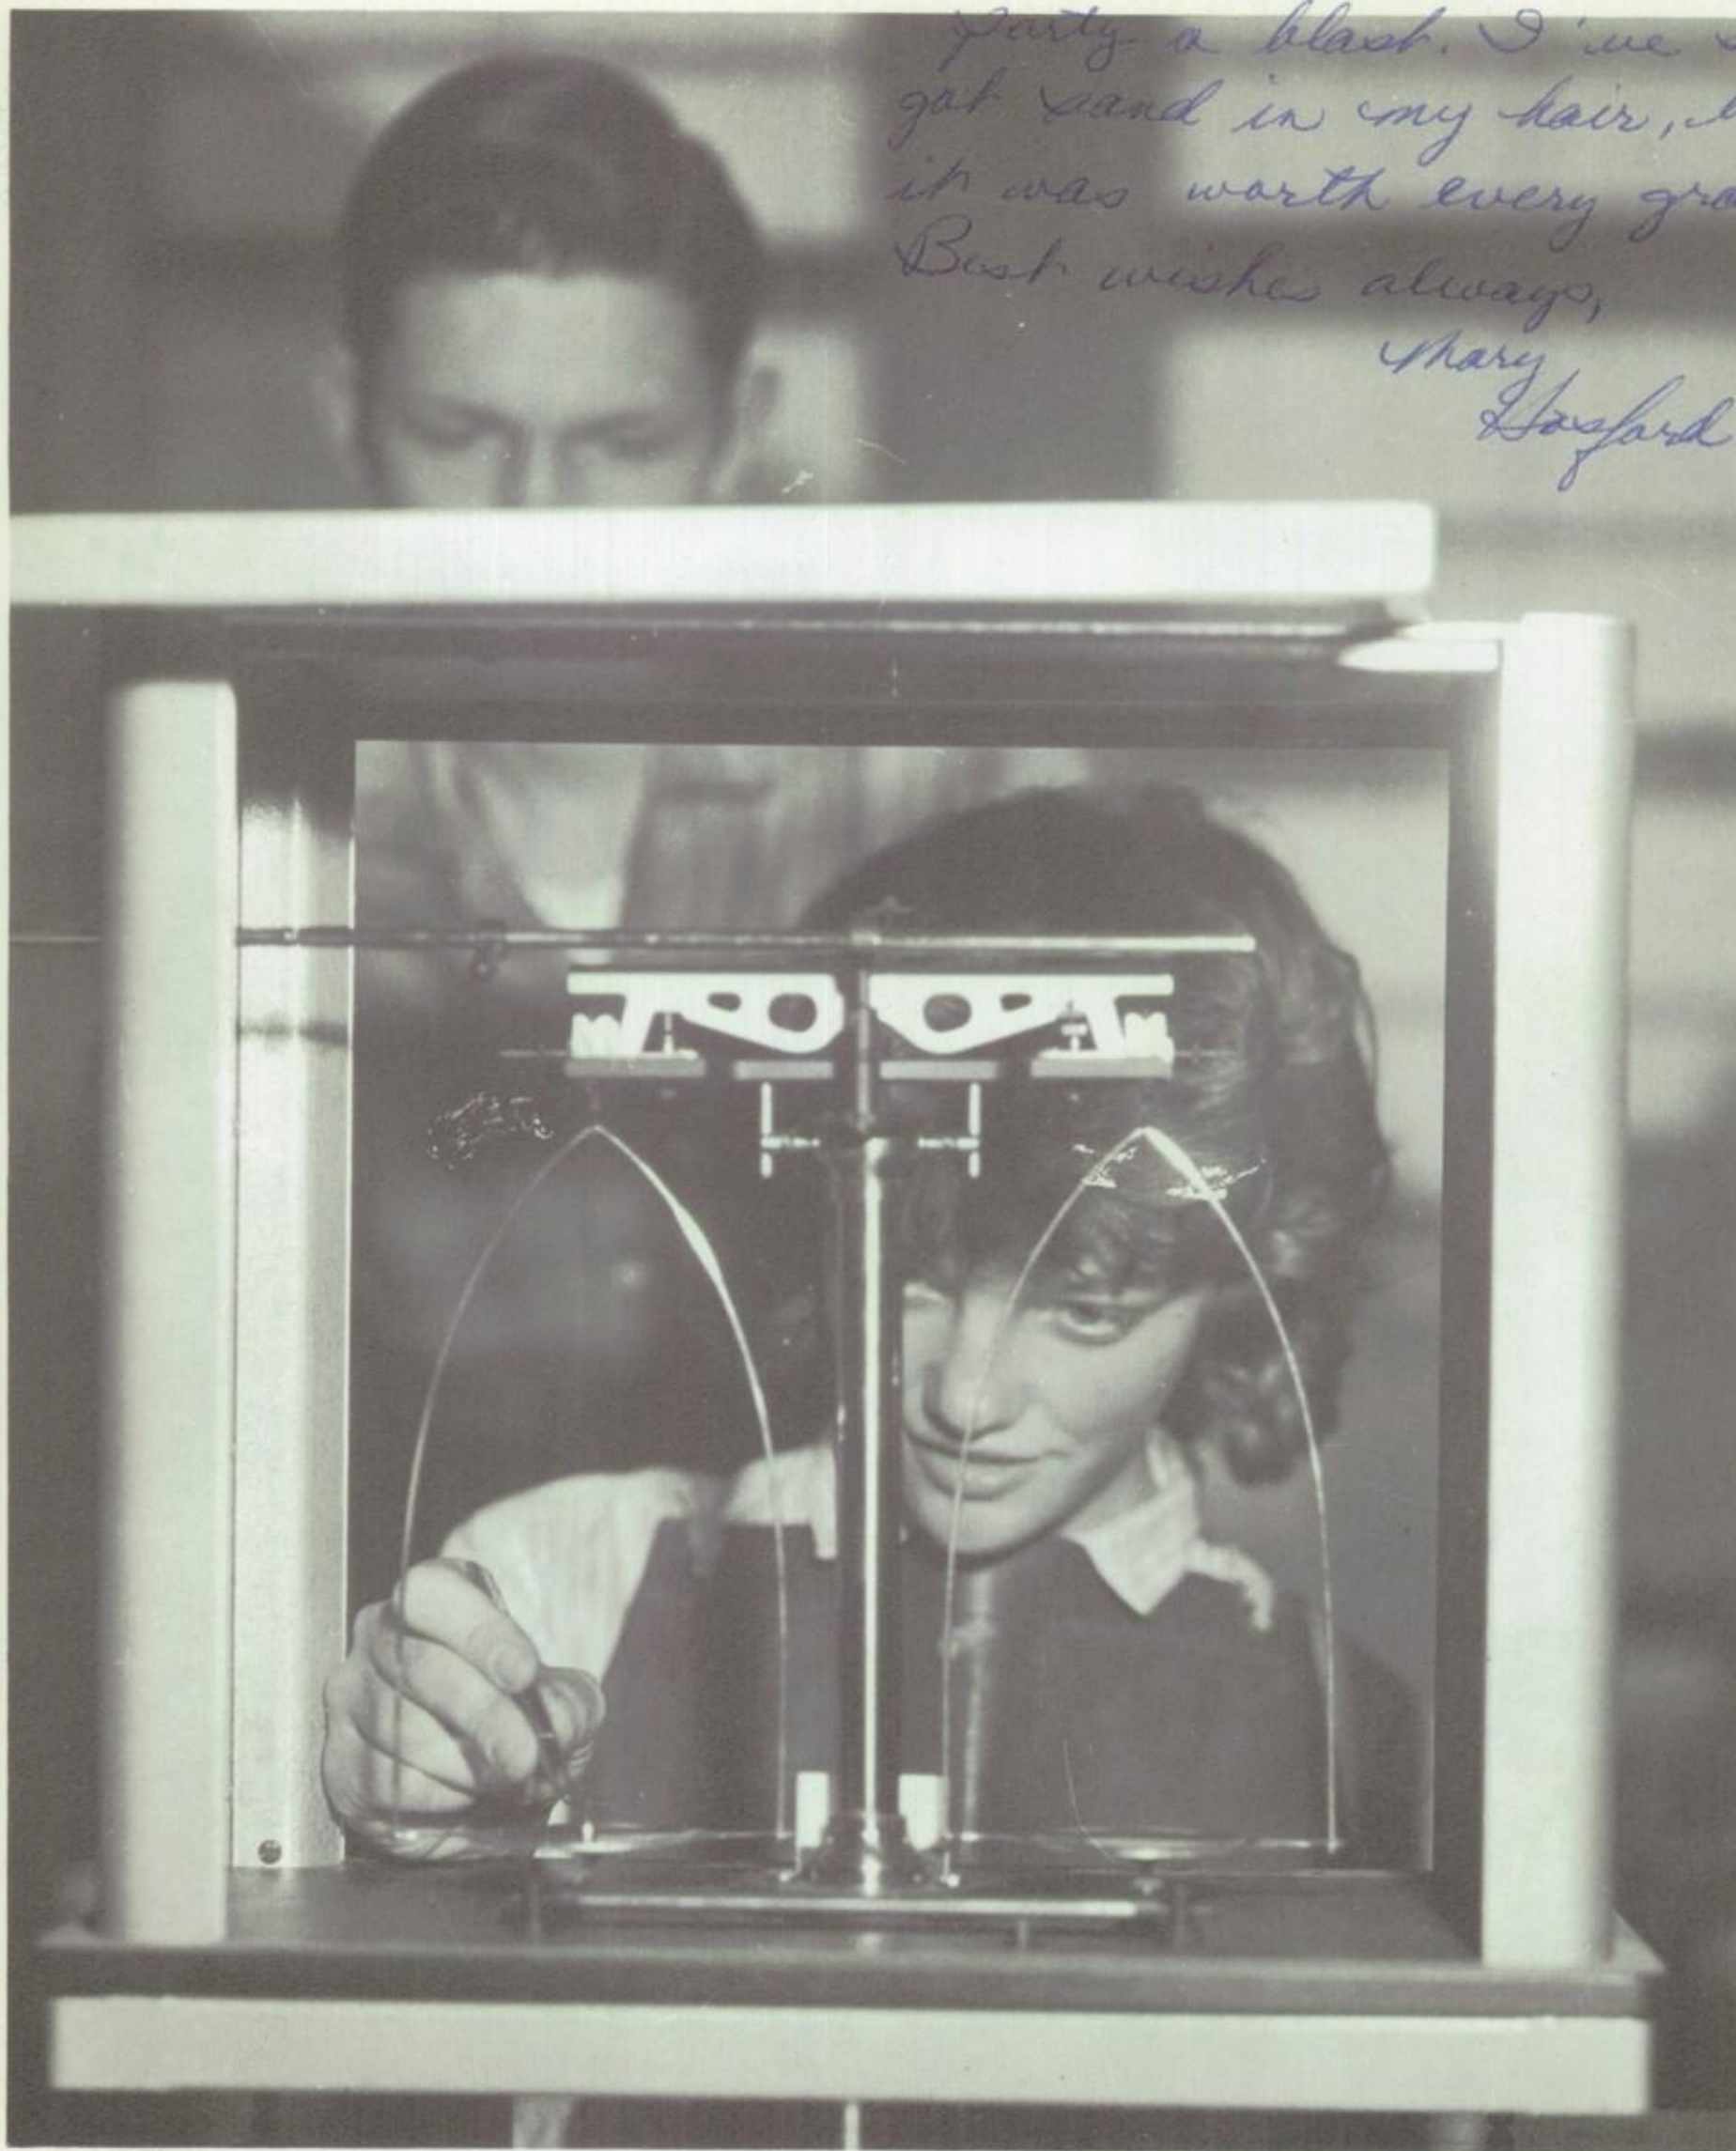

Our Cheerleaders and Pom-Pon Girls display their never-ending pep and vitality.

Everybody supported our first J.V. rally. This rally was the first ever in the history of S. H. S.

Mary,
Wasn't that beach party a blast. I've still got sand in my hair, but it was worth every grain.
Best wishes always,
Mary
Hosford

Mary Hosford makes good use of the balances for her theoretical versus experimental calculation in Chemistry class.

These students in Miss Mac's cooking class learn that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

Dalia Viray learns to operate the voice writer while taking Business Machines.

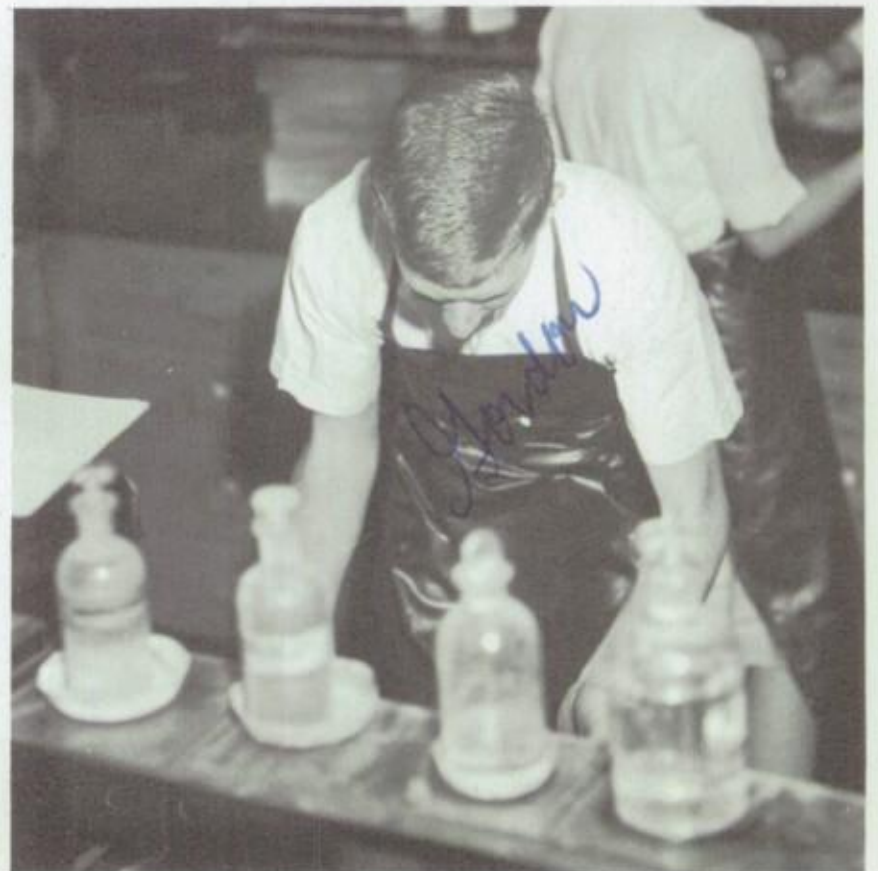

Mr. Haggblade, the Shorthand teacher, assists Lora Collier with a dictation problem.

Lucy Froelicher, while taking a sewing class, learns that it's better to run the needle over the cloth than over your finger.

Students taking cooking classes at S.H.S. learn how to cook many different things. Here these girls experiment with a jelly roll.

OOOPS! There goes another $3.25 down the drain!

Donna Chong carefully weighs out her chemicals so as not to waste any.

Paul Daniels and Gary Fike work on their entries for the John Steinbeck Contest.

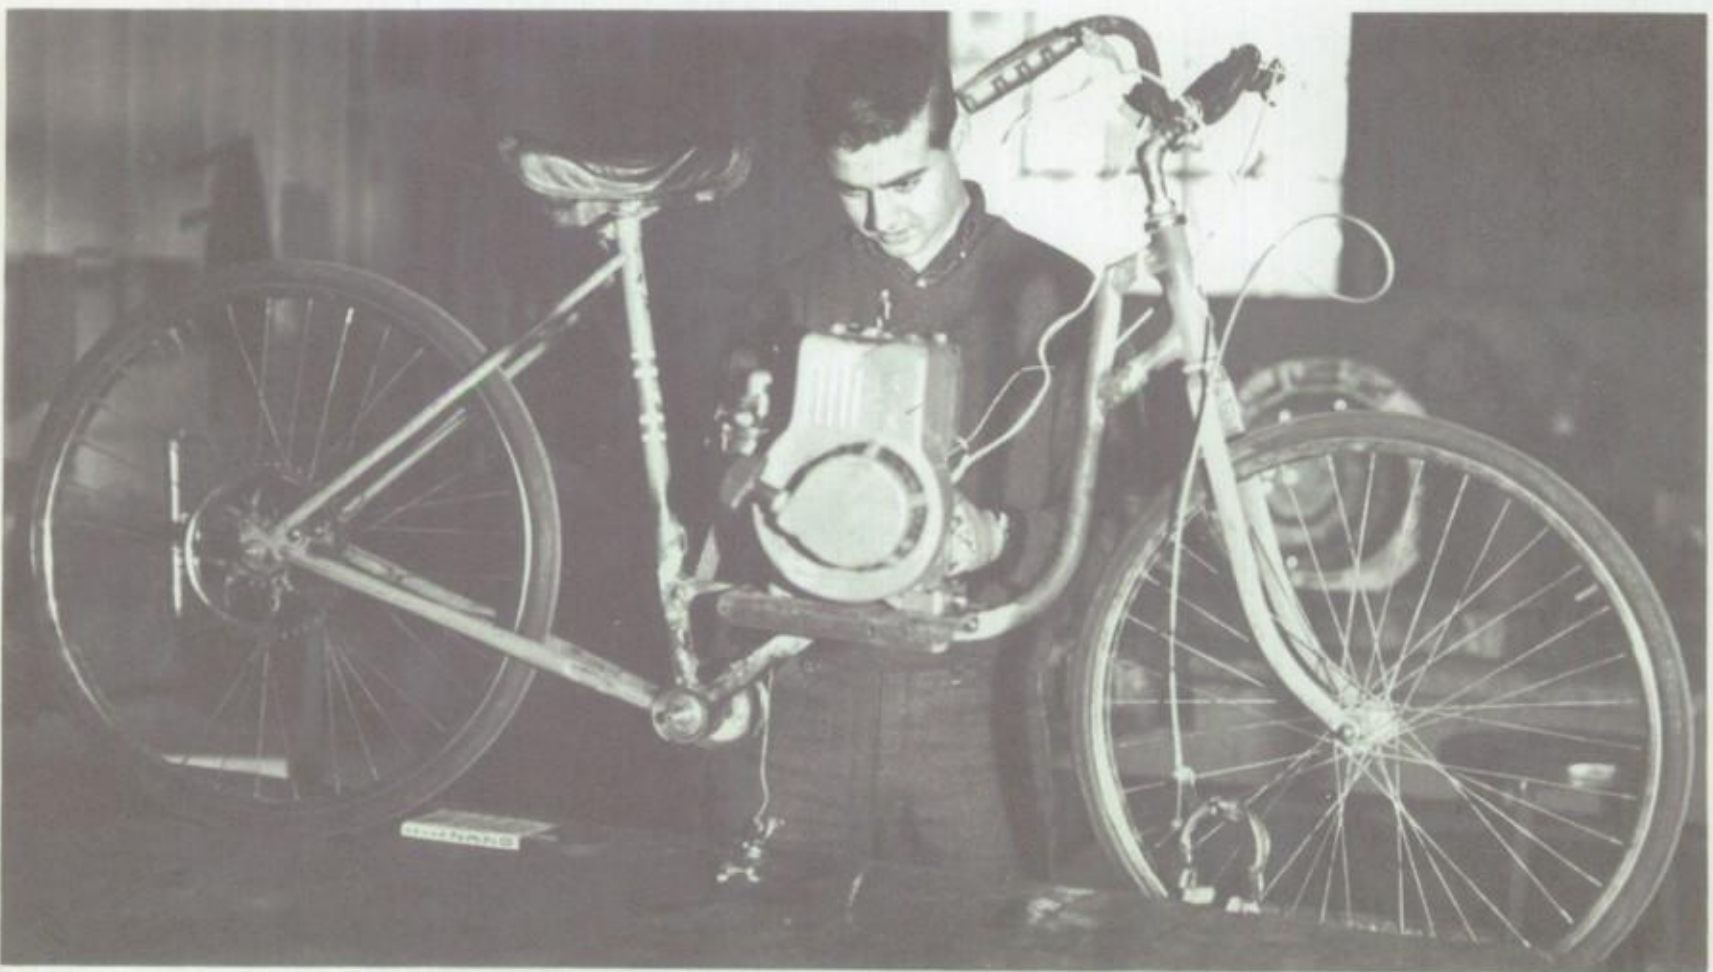

One of the many things students learn while taking Business Machines is to operate the duplicator.

Marta Gibbons, our foreign exchange student from Argentina, is shown here giving a report on her native country to Mr. Nelson's government class.

Question of the month:

DANCES MONSTER MASH

Which couple had the best time at the Monster Mash?

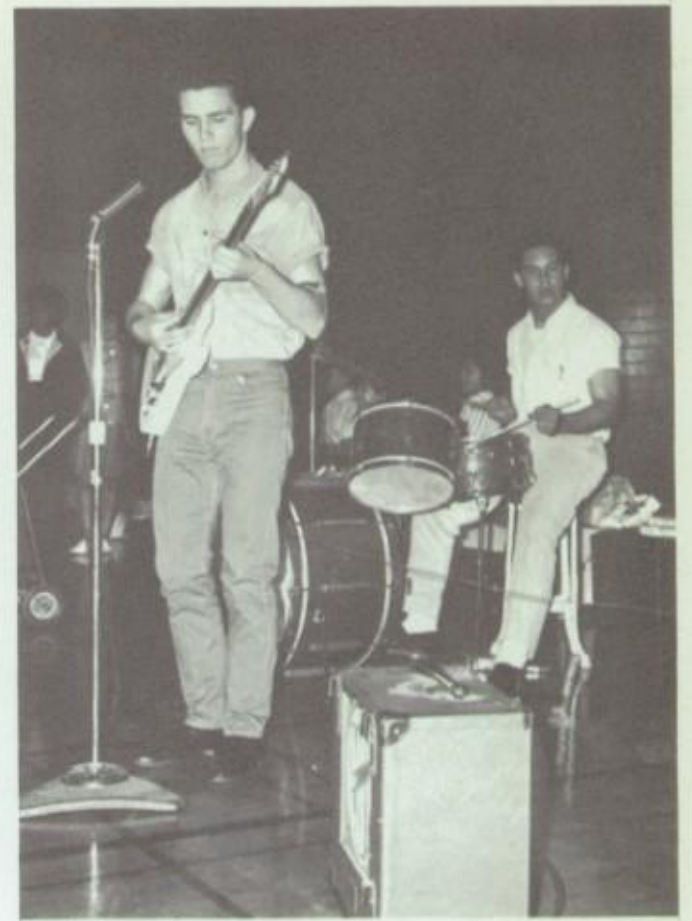

One of the many surprises at the Monster Mash was the band member who came out on the floor and played his saxophone.

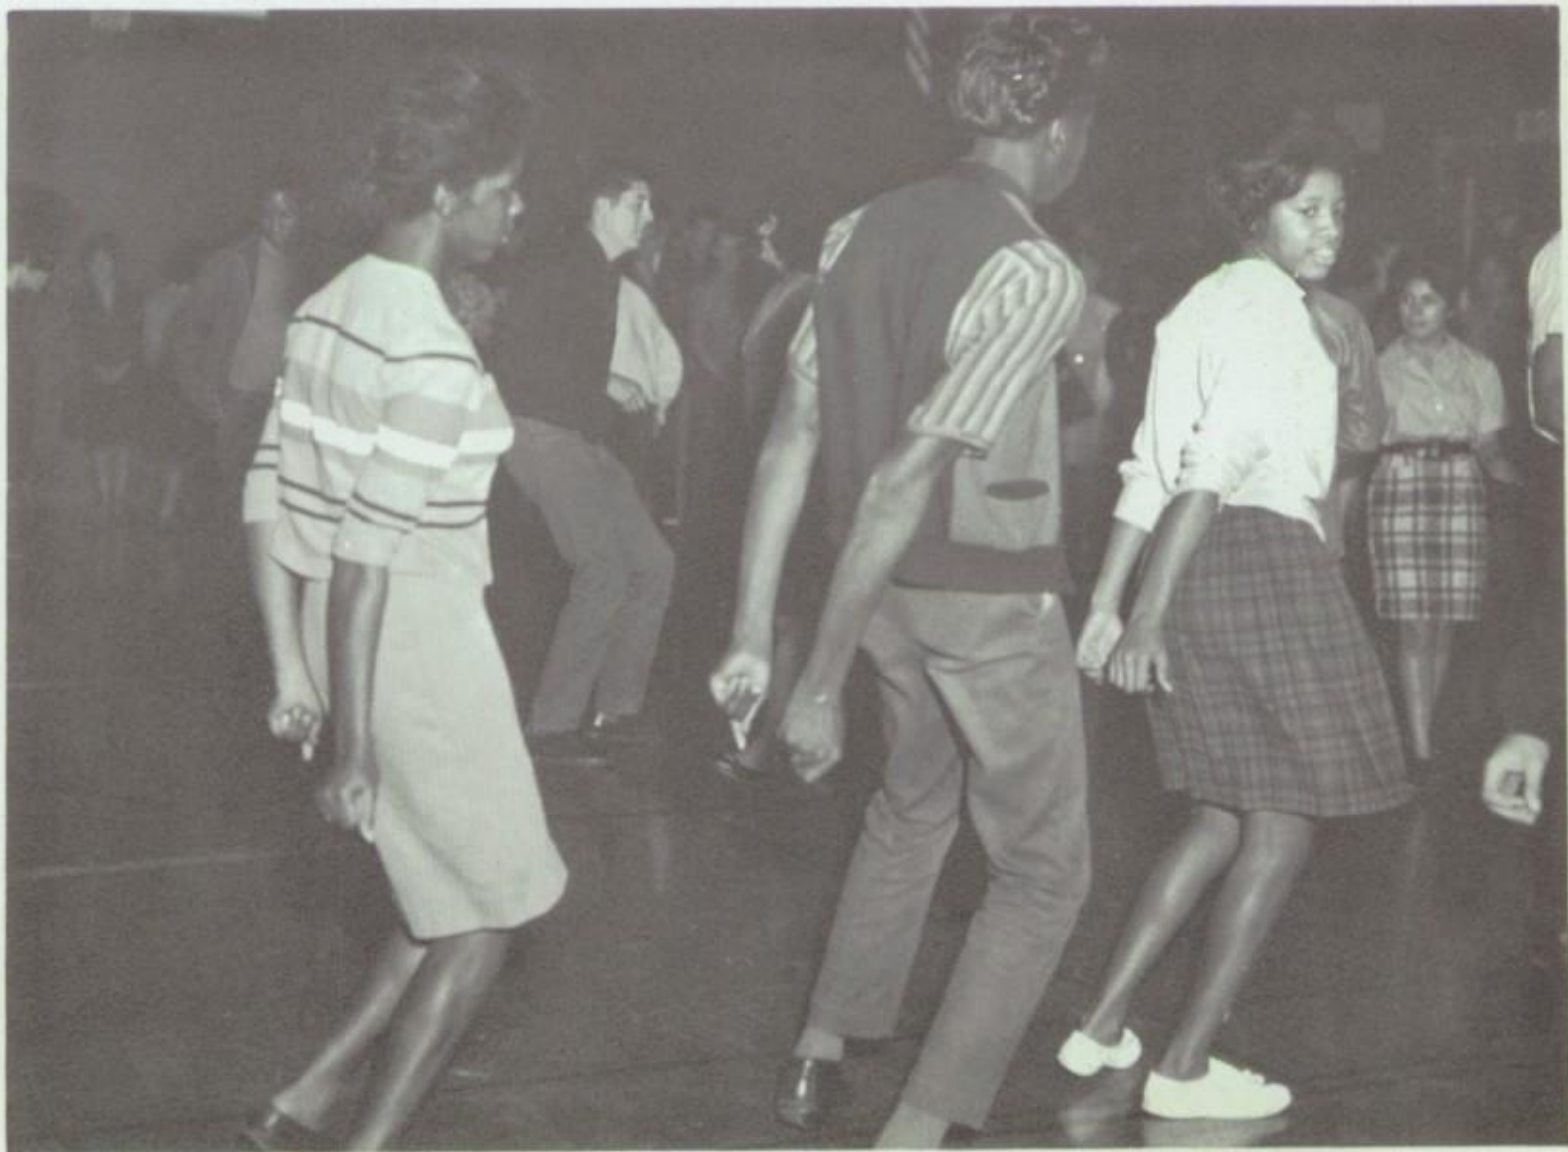

NOON DANCES

At S.H.S., it seemed as if the old custom of dancing with your partner has gone out of style.

J. R. Monigold, our student body president, played for many of our noon dances this year.

Students are seen here doing a version of the "Pop Pie." Many of these interesting dances were the fad this year.

King Warren Wayland and Queen LaVonne Holt reign at the Harvest Ball.

Autumn Wonderland was the theme of the Harvest Ball, sponsored by the Future Farmers.

HARVEST BALL

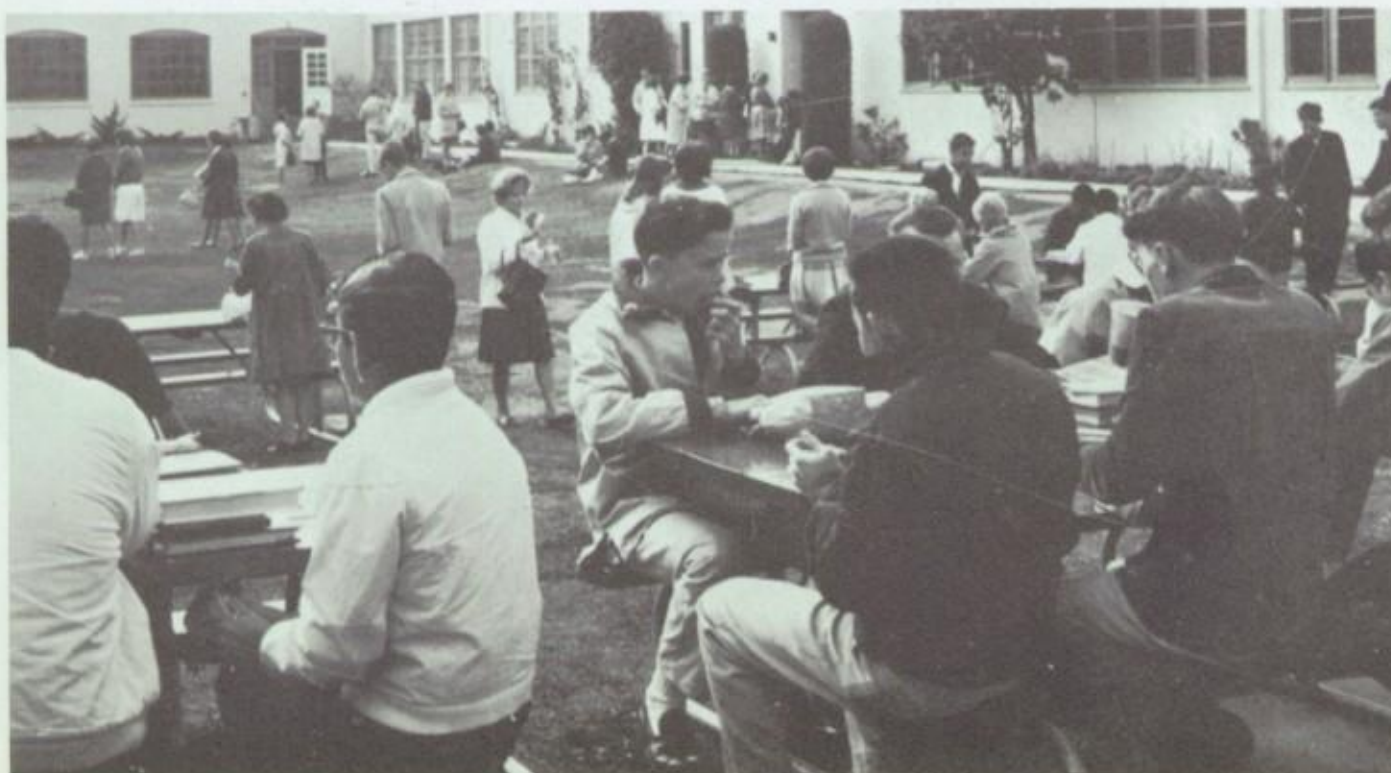

Shown here are the top three contestants of the Harvest Ball — Ron Wallace and Judy Cranford, LaVonne Holt and Warren Wayland, Yolanda Castillo and King Hanway.

The favorite eating spot of our Senior Boys this year was in the inner court.

One of the more popular hangouts of the S.H.S. crowd is Foster's Freeze.

Many of the "lunch box" kids eat in the inner court.

BASKETBALL QUEEN OF 1963

Marta Gibbons, first alternate, is escorted by Roger Hettrick.

Gail Horton, second alternate, is escorted by Richard Curtis.

J. R. Monigold crowns our Basketball Queen Sue Strand, who was escorted by John Moore.

Sandy Anselmo, third alternate, is escorted by Dennis King.

Shelley Stantorf, fourth alternate, is escorted by Chris Gordon.

Todd Loomis, driving Steve Silacci's car, won first place in the Car Parade this year.

Holly and Sue attack the North High Viking at our annual cross-town basketball game.

Julie Adams shows a Twirp Dance sign to LaVonne Holt, vice-president of Girls' League.

FUTURE NURSES

The Future Nurses acquaints its members with the nursing profession. A few of the activities for this year were collecting money for the County Hospital Christmas Fund, decorating the wards at the County Hospital, and touring Fort Ord Hospital. At the end of the year they held a party for the senior members.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The Future Teachers Club is composed of people qualified for and interested in a teaching career. The members held a noon dance to raise money for their treasury, their spring trip, and their end-of-the-year banquet.

Deanna Dudley, treasurer; Marilyn Wharton, corresponding secretary; Cheryl Walker, president; Susan Dudley, publicity; Sandy Urabe, vice-president; Kaaren Iverson, secretary.

WRANGLERS

The Wranglers is a service group dedicated to providing needed assistance at many SHS functions. The club organized a noon dance in November, and later in the year the members went on a trip. During the school year they worked toward establishing a scholarship fund.

We would also like to acknowledge all those persons without whose cooperation and support we could not put out the 1962-1963 El Gabilan.

Mary Ann
 you are a very nice girl who deserves the very success best of luck and in the future years. God Bless you always,
 Joann

MAN!

Well so you think you made it I think that is very fine but I wish you would come to summer school and help me make it. It has a lot of fun know this past year I think you are a very sweet girl. Have fun this summer and hope to see you are and a hope you will be a good friend. Hope you do the best to you every thing you do. Rob
